

[Enter the Past] CAA2003 -STATEMENT OF ORIGINALITY

Title of the Paper:

Author(s):

Originality:

Does the paper describe work carried out by you?

Has anyone else contributed to the paper or taken part in its preparation? If so, please name them.

Does the paper give proper acknowledgement and credit to all contributors and other sources of material other than the author(s) named above?

To the best of your knowledge, is the paper, or any part of it, original? (If only a part of the paper describes original work, give details).

Has any material in the paper been copied from another source? If so, please give full details

Has the paper been presented at any other conference, congress, symposium etc? (If so, please give details. publication of the paper in the proceedings of a conference does not necessarily disqualify the paper from consideration).

Has the paper been published in any journal publication etc (in any language)?

Is the paper at present under consideration for publication by any other journal or other publisher?

Has your employer or any person who commissioned or funded the work described in the paper agreed to submission of the paper to Computer Applications in Archaeology with a view to publication?

If any of the author(s) are employed, please state the name and address of their respective employers at the time the work described in the paper was performed.

All authors of the paper must sign below:

In consideration of Computer Applications in Archaeology agreeing to consider the paper for publication I/We, the named author(s) of the paper:

-warrant that the above statements are correct, that the paper contains nothing defamatory, and that it may be submitted to Computer Applications in Archaeology with a view to publication; and

- agree to fully indemnify Computer Applications in Archaeology and its officers against all claims
